With scenic pathways, parks, playgrounds, and seasonal markets right outside your door, Rangeview is a place where neighbors grow, share, and truly become a community. Step inside from the double attached garage and you’ll appreciate the smart functionality of the mudroom, which connects directly through a spacious walk-in pantry and into the kitchen, making unloading groceries an absolute breeze. If you’re entering from the front, a welcoming foyer sets the tone for the rest of the home, offering an immediate sense of warmth and comfort. Adjacent to the central staircase, you’ll find a convenient two-piece bathroom, perfectly placed for both guests and family members. As you move toward the rear of the home, the layout opens into a bright and versatile office or den, ideal for anyone who works from home or wants a quiet corner for studying or creative projects.

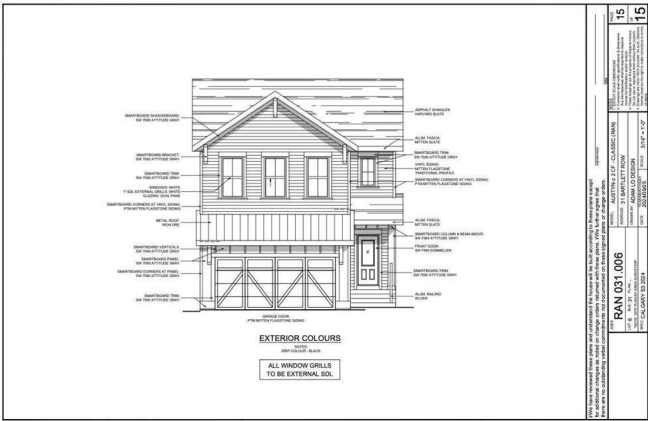

The kitchen is truly the heart of the main floor, boasting a large island with a flush eating bar and modern finishes, all overlooking the nook and the expansive great room. This open-concept space is filled with natural light and is perfect for hosting friends, gathering for family meals, or just relaxing together after a long day. Head upstairs and youâ€™ll find a layout that continues to impress, starting with two generous secondary bedrooms at the back of the home. Each bedroom includes its own walk-in closet, a rare and highly sought-after feature that offers plenty of storage and organization. These bedrooms share a well-appointed three-piece bathroom and are located just steps from a dedicated laundry room, making everyday chores convenient and efficient. A large bonus room sits between the secondary bedrooms and the primary suite, providing a flexible space that could be a media lounge, playroom, or even a home gym.
