This is your chance to own a one of a kind home a block away from Lando Lakes golf course in Cottonwood. When you enter the home you will see classic architecture meets cozy living. This European cottage style bungalow built by Castle Rock was thoughtfully designed. It would not fit on one lot so it's on 2 and backs onto a beautiful green space. Quality starts from the exterior with the stunning cedar garage doors and a beautiful alder front door. When you step inside you will see the timeless design. There are beautiful walnut floors throughout the living room and kitchen and rich cherry cabinetry. The main floor is bright and open with 10 feet coffered ceiling and large windows looking onto the backyard. There are 2 bedrooms up and 2 bathrooms. The custom tile work and claw tub in the ensuite is simple and elegant. There are solid wood doors throughout the home and custom wrought iron railings. Downstairs you will find a partially finished basement with 2 more bedrooms, bathroom and a large living room space. The backyard is just as beautiful as the inside. Cherry trees line the driveway and the yard has been meticulously planned with endless mature perennials and trees. This home is the essence of quality.
